COURSE DESCRIPTION

An analysis of Canadian political institutions and processes. This course will examine the social and economic environment of Canadian and Indigenous politics, political culture, regionalism, linguistic diversity, constitutionalism, federalism, parliamentary government, political parties, elections, and the media.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

With its vast geography and diverse population, Canada is a unique political, economic, and social experiment in today's world. How did this country – a “peaceable kingdom” in the “Great White North” – come to be? How do Canadians govern themselves? How do they manage their linguistic, cultural, and regional diversity? How have they grappled with their colonial past and settler colonial present? In this course, we will consider these questions by learning about the development and structure of Canada's political institutions and processes, as well as the actors that inhabit them. We will examine how our constitutional and legal traditions, political culture, and norms shape the use of power in Canada. We will consider how decisions are made in Canada and who contributes to those processes. By the end of the course, you will have developed the tools necessary for understanding, analyzing, and engaging in Canadian politics.

This course has several learning objectives. The first is to introduce you to Canada's political system, institutions, and politics. The second is to develop your ability to assess Canadian democracy, the structure and function of its political institutions and processes, and to evaluate your own role as a political actor and citizen. The final objective is to instill an appreciation for this country, its unique politics, and the grand experiment in which you are all participating.

READING REQUIREMENTS

In this course, there is one required text. The textbook can be purchased in-person or online through the Bishop's University Bookstore (Marjorie Donald Building), accessed in the course reserves at the John Bassett Memorial Library, or ordered through online retailers. You may use either the print or the electronic versions of the text.

- Brooks, Stephen and Marc Ménard. 2018. Canadian Democracy: A Concise Introduction. Second Edition. Don Mills, ON: Oxford University Press Canada. 472 pp.

Readings have been limited to ~40 pp. per week. Students are expected to attend classes prepared to engage these assigned materials through lectures, classroom discussion, online discussion, and breakout groups.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

| Requirement | Due Date | Value |
|-------------------------|--------------------------|-------|
| 1. Online participation | Ongoing (five questions) | 25% |
| 2. Midterm exam | Feb. 14 ♥ (60 minutes) | 35% |
| 3. Final exam | April examination period | 40% |

Online Participation (25%) – Throughout the term, you will be asked to respond to five (5) discussion questions using Slack. You will receive a prompt on Tuesday afternoons (Jan. 22, Jan. 28, Feb. 19, Mar. 19, Apr. 2) and have until midnight on the following Sunday to respond. To sign up for a Slack account, use the following address:

https://join.slack.com/t/pol112-cdnpol-w19/shared_invite/enQtNTE4MTAyNzU4MzExLTZhYjllMzE3YzdiYWZmYTIwMTE1OWNhYTO2NTI5OGVhMDZiOWI4ZjgxMjViYzdiMDk5ODU1YTZmNzlhNDUxMmU

While you will be formally graded on your online participation, in class participation is still an expectation. Online and in-class participation provides students with a variety of learning styles access to the best means for communicating their ideas, interacting with their peers, and engaging in a variety of active learning exercises.

Midterm exam (35%) – To be held during regular classroom hours. The midterm will cover the first half of the course, including all assigned readings, lectures, and additional materials distributed in class or through Slack.

Final exam (40%) – To be scheduled during December exam period. The final exam will be a cumulative, two-hour exam, and include short and long answer questions.

COURSE POLICIES

Academic accommodations. Student Accessibility & Accommodation Services provides a wide array of individualized support services to meet the needs of students with disabilities in order that they may define and achieve personal autonomy while pursuing higher education. [To be reviewed.]

Classroom community and participation. The classroom should be an anti-oppressive learning environment. We will adhere at all times to a policy of mutual respect in sharing opinions and ideas, in accordance with Bishop's University's Policy on the Prevention of Harassment (<https://www.ubishops.ca/about-bu/bishops-university-leadership-and-vision/governance-and-administration/harassment/>). Rude, discriminatory, oppressive, or otherwise marginalizing comments or language will not be tolerated.

Email Policy. I will respond to emails within 48 hours during weekdays. I will only respond sporadically to emails sent on weekends. You should note the course code ('POL 123') in the subject line of your email.

Grading. Grading in this course will be done using percentage grades. See below for this course's grading scheme:

|--------------------|-----------------------|
| Passing grade..... | 50% – 100%; P (pass) |
| Failing grade..... | 0% – 49%; F (failure) |
| 80%–100%..... | (equivalent to A) |
| 70%–79%..... | (equivalent to B) |
| 60%–69%..... | (equivalent to C) |
| 50%–59%..... | (equivalent to D) |

I'll use your pronoun. It's no big deal. See www.nbdcampaign.ca. In addition, class rosters and University data systems are provided to instructors with students' legal names and gender identifications. However, knowing that not all students use their legal names or sex/gender assigned at birth, I am happy to use the name and/or pronouns you use. We will take time during our first class together to do introductions, at which point you can share with all members of our learning community what name and pronouns you use. If these change at any point during the semester, please let me know and we can develop a way to share this information with others in a way that is comfortable and safe for you. [Borrowed from Dr. Z Nicolazzo - @trans_killjoy]

Language of instruction. The language of instruction of the institution is English. Nonetheless, students have the option to submit individual written work in either English or French, except where a knowledge or competency in a language is an object of the course. Students who wish to submit work in French must notify their instructor by the Add/Drop deadline so that, if necessary, special arrangements can be made for the evaluation of their work. Please see the Academic Calendar for more information.

Make-up tests. Make-up tests for missed midterm exams will only be considered when appropriate official documentation is provided from a medical professional or the Dean of Arts and Sciences. If a quiz will be missed due to a pre-scheduled event (i.e. academic event, athletic event, or family emergency), arrangements should be made before the scheduled quiz.

Plagiarism. Reproduced from the Bishop's University Academic Calendar:

2.1 Plagiarism is a kind of academic dishonesty in which an individual uses the work of another without appropriate acknowledgement. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to the following practices:

- Using another's work without acknowledgement
- Copying material without quotation marks
- Paraphrasing too closely the exact words of the originating author
- Submitting work written in whole or in part as one's own by another individual.

2.2 The following practices related to plagiarism are also prohibited:

- Helping another student plagiarize
- Submitting in whole or in part work for which the student has received credit in another course, unless the permission of the instructor has been obtained
- Submitting any statement of fact known to be false or providing a fabricated reference to a source.

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

Religious observance. Students requesting accommodation for religious observances should apply in writing to their instructor for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory academic event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Slack. Slack is an online tool that allows users to chat, share content, and direct messages through their browser, desktop, tablet, or smartphone app. Slack has been widely adopted as a means of office communications across the private sector and particularly by journalism, media, and internet companies. We'll be using Slack to facilitate participation outside the classroom. I will also hold online office hours concurrently with my office hours in McGreer and at other times. Supplementary readings and materials will be distributed through Slack. You can download the desktop or mobile app here: www.slack.com.

Writing Centre. The Writing Centre is located in the Library. Get help with planning, organizing, outlining, sentence structure, grammar, referencing and citations. This service is free.

Make an appointment with writing centre staff by using the online booking system (<http://buwritingcenter.simplybook.me>). Appointments are available from Mondays to Friday. Planning in advance is the key to your success; last minute appointments are hard to obtain, especially near the end of the session.

Appendix A – Online Code of Conduct

In this course, you will be participating in course discussions and assignments in-person and through a variety of online tools. I expect you to adhere to the same standards of behaviour and engagement that you would follow in person and on campus.

1. Respectful conduct

- a. All participants in online discussions should maintain an environment that is free of harassment towards the teaching team and members of the class. This includes demeaning written or oral comments based on ability, age, ancestry, citizenship, colour, creed, ethnic origin, family status, gender, gender expression, gender identity, language group, marital status, place of origin, race, receipt of public assistance, record of offences, religion, religious dress, religious practice, sex, and/or sexual orientation of that individual or those individuals. All participants must abide by the Bishop's University Code of Student Conduct (<http://www.ubishops.ca/wp-content/uploads/Code-of-Student-Conduct.pdf>). Please refer to the Code for additional information.
- b. All participants should respect the views of others and respond in a courteous manner in our discussions about the materials and issues explored in the course.
- c. All participants should make valuable contributions to online discussions. Contributions should be thoughtful and in keeping with the tone and direction of our discussions.
- d. All participants should respect the privacy of other members of the class by not sharing or spreading private information.
- e. All participants should respect the integrity of Bishop University's computer systems, such as Moodle, and the online discussion tool slack.com.

2. Participation

- a. I expect active participation from everyone in our online discussions. This includes asking questions, responding to discussion prompts, respectfully engaging other participants in debate, and introducing new ideas and information to our discussions.
- b. I expect clear communication from everyone in our online discussions. Given the real-time nature of our discussions, however, I recognize that typos, spelling and grammatical errors, and other mistakes can happen. You have the option to edit your entries, but my focus will be on the quality of your ideas and contributions to our discussions.
- c. Have fun.

Appendix B – Participation grade rubric
